It was getting late and I knew that if I didn't find a hotel soon, I would have to sleep on a park-bench or in a police station. I had been looking for a hotel for three hours and was feeling very hungry. So, I decided to go into the little restaurant that I had passed some minutes ago .

The restaurant didn't seem very attractive. The windows were so dirty that it seemed they hadn't been cleaned for months. In one of the them, there was a notice saying "Cook Wanted." These words were badly written on a piece of paper. A little man who was wearing a very big coat stood and looked at it for a few minutes. Finally, he decided and opened the door and immediately I went inside after him.

55. How long had the writer been looking for a hotel?

56. Where would the writer have to sleep if he didn't find a hotel?

57. Where did the writer finally go?

58. The passage tells us that the little man who was looking at the notice was the writer's friend.
a. True b. False

59. The restaurant was not very nice.
a. True b. False

Good luck
