I left the hotel and found myself in a very busy street full of cars, and buses. People were moving about very fast. I was lost among so many people, cars, and buses. But the hotel clerk's guidance was good. I got on the bus all right. After I had ridden for about an hour, we came to the end of the line in River Bank. "Where is Lockwood high school? " I asked the bus driver "Lockwood high school?" he said. "Yes", I replied. "That's on the other side of the city." he told me. "Why did you get on this bus? " he asked.

"The hotel clerk told me to take a B40 bus." I replied. Then the bus driver told me, "The B14 bus goes to the high school". Then I learned the difference between 40 and 14 in pronunciation.

54. Whom had the writer asked the address of the high school at first?
55. Which bus went to the high school?
56. Where did the B40 bus go?

57. Lockwood high school was ..... .
a. near the hotel b. out of the city
c. on the other side of the city d. in River Bank

58. The streets were crowded. a. True b. False
59. The hotel clerk guided him correctly. a. True b. False
