C. Reading Comprehension: Passage (1)

Read the following passage and match each paragraph with one of the headings (main ideas). Write the letters (A, B, C, D) in front of the numbers of the paragraphs.

Headings (main ideas)

- (A) Different kinds of people are volunteers.
- (B) Some people give time to help others.
- (C) One man started a group to plant trees.
- (D) Volunteers help in different ways.

38. Some people go to work each day and then come home. They spend time with their family and friends. Maybe they watch TV or go to a movie. Sometimes they exercise or read. This is their life. But for other people, this is not enough. They look around their neighborhoods and see people with terrible hardships: sickness, loneliness, and homelessness. Other people see problems with the environment. Many people want to help. They volunteer. They give some of their time to help others.

39. Volunteers help in many ways. Some visit sick and lonely people. Some give their friendship to children without parents. Some build houses for homeless people.
Others sit and look after babies with AIDS.

40. Andy Lipkis was at summer camp when he planted his first tree. He began to think about the environment. In many countries, people were cutting down trees. Andy Lipkis worried about this. In 1974, he started a group, Tree People, to plant trees. Today there are thousands of members of Tree people, and more join every day.
They plant millions of trees everywhere.

41. Twenty or thirty years ago, most volunteers were housewives. They volunteered time while their husbands were working. Today both men and women volunteer. There are volunteers from all social classes, all neighborhoods, and all ages. Most aren't rich or famous. They enjoy their volunteer work. People need them. Today, with problems such as AIDS and homelessness, the world needs volunteers more than ever before.
